Classmates attended a lovely Fabulous 50s luncheon in the Beaumont Theatre on October 9th; Christy Salata and committee did a great job! President Wendy Hoke and Beaumont Senior Meghan Kessinger spoke about enjoying her time at Beaumont. Chef Bo's food was so good! It was fun to chat with our classmates and others from Beaumont as well! We enjoyed seeing the slides of the 40's and 50's classes, and finding ourselves in them and in the yearbooks on the tables.

Class of 1955 attendees: Rose Mary Selvaggio Fitzgerald, Patricia Meyers Willkomm, Lee Gibaldi Juratovec, Micki Comella Maniscalco, Terry Pezzino Lentini, Donna Cellura Brant, Joyce Pyne Hogsdon, Kathleen McMannaman Lasby, Merici Paulus Kramer and Sr. Ann Winters, OSU. Two classmates weren't able to attend, due to illness: Sr. Maureen McCarthy and Mary Lloyd Deutschman. Sr. Maureen is looking forward to her move to Merici Crossings February 19th. Her suite mate is another Beaumont alumna—Sr. Joan Petersen.

Suzie Baird Fitzgerald had a wonderful visit with Sheila Dunn Burke in Arizona. It was perfect weather, lots of activity, good food, and always fun to be with a good friend. In October, Connie O'Connell Strong and Marie Penote Queenan went to visit Ann Mishler Hutzel and her husband Don in Tiffin, Ohio. Kathleen O'Neill Dunn and her husband joined them. They had a wonderful time catching up and remembering lots of fun times over the many years they have known each other. Carol Hart Keck planned a fun trip to the winery in Geneva. Suzie Baird Fitzgerald, Janet Neff Newsome, Mary Anne Corlett Rotatori, Dolores McDonnell Ritt, Diane Junglas Richardson, and myself stayed at the Inn in Geneva, and had a driver take us to four wineries. We learned a lot about wine! The memorial Mass at Beaumont was very well attended. We remembered our deceased classmates Karen Kline Smith and Phyllis Bleich Greenhalgh. After Mass, Carol Egan Grady, Judy Bopp Loach, Dolores McDonnell Ritt, Diane Junglas Richardson, Janet Neff Newsome, Rosemarie Miceli Surace, Mary D'Agostino Mandalfino and myself attended brunch at Cedar Creek Grill. Our Fabulous Fifties Luncheon was also well attended. Lynn Harvanian Boyd, Peggy Walsh Varga, Diane Junglas Richardson, Dolores McDonnell Ritt, Mary Anne Corlett Rotatori, Rosa Schembri & myself all enjoyed the afternoon. Patricia McIntyre Westropp went on a bus trip to New York City in November. It was amazing to see Ground Zero, Manhattan, Brooklyn and the theatres. We encourage you to continue your support for our Scholarship Fund!

Happy and Healthy 2019 to all! Maryann Papes Semancik reports not being tired at all(!) after a month-long visit from her five year old granddaughter followed by a two week visit after flying with her to her family home in San Francisco. A group of us met with Maryann while she was visiting in Cleveland (Thank you, Diane Toronski for arranging the breakfast at First Watch in Pinecrest). Maryann keeps busy visiting friends and family in San Francisco and San Diego, in addition to Cleveland.

Cathy Hyland Hannon wrote from Battle Creek, Michigan (where she has lived since 1972) that her seven children, seventeen grandchildren and one great grandson live all over the country and the world. Cathy worked for twenty one years as a deputy clerk for the District Court and sang with her church choir. Since her husband, Jack's death twenty two years ago she has volunteered in schools, helping children with reading and for the past six years has tutored a boy who has severe dyslexia. It must be thrilling for Cathy, who ranks reading and learning among her greatest pleasures, to see this boy actually enjoy reading. I, too, tutor young children who are struggling with reading and I can attest to the great rewards to the volunteer from this work.

Mary Cavanaugh Lewis wrote about the trip she and Tom took to Ireland, reuniting with relatives, and then sightseeing on the west coast of Ireland with their daughters, son in law and three grandchildren. They also visited Hong Kong and Cambodia and the UK this year. Their daughter, Maureen, is relocating to London, where she will remain with her present law firm in its new headquarters. (Seems like a good excuse to visit a wonderful city!) Mary also wrote about the stress seen in families over college admission for grandchildren. This is a comment that has been heard regularly from many grandparents of the class of '57. In September, a dozen of us from the class of 1957 met at the Heights Grill for lunch and lots of talk. Present, were the following: Marsha Corlett Sarakaitis, Diane Golubski Toronski, Lynn Mann, Kitty Callinan Busher, Marianne Rocco Walton, Carole Margareth Marciano, Joyce Raviotta, Mary Lou Deucher Fuerst, Kay Winters O'Mally, Janet Wakefield (Sr. Praxedes, OSU), Judy Patterson Nieser and Barbara Schuele Schubert.

We plan to do it again, with an even larger group, in the spring. On October 9th Beaumont hosted the "Fabulous 50's Luncheon." Peggy Madigan and Edie Holtzheimer Gruber joined the usual group, who reported that it was great to get together. I was sorry to miss the fun. On Nov. 29 Mary Ann Kinney came to Cleveland and all those available met at the New Heights Grill on Lee Road. A good time was reported as well as fun to catch up with Mary Ann. These notes come with a promise to plan a lunch, with plenty of lead time, after the last freeze.

It seems some class members are on the move. Carol Geck Machael splits her time between condos in Iowa and Florida. Her kids and grandchildren are not close by, which can be difficult. Pat Friel Mayer is moving to the Pennsylvania countryside, close to her youngest daughter, and two hours from NYC. She will keep her house in California, winter, don't you just know! Touchstone Gallery is excited to present Mary D. Ott's solo show Branching Out: Original Prints. Class of 1963: (Left to right) Standing: Kati Callahan Crawford, Mary Jo Rini, Regina Fana, Mary Redmond O'Malley. Seated: Linda Baurcky, Pat Gilmore Kearney.

Sr. Sheila Tobbe and Sr. Ritamary Welsh will be "roomies" at the Merici Crossings, the new residence at Ursuline College. It will accommodate 70 sisters, and as the numbers dwindle, lay people will be invited to move there. They will have a chapel, community dining room, great room and ministry offices as well as underground parking. These St. Ann's "girls" will still be having pajama parties 60+ years later! Mary Jo Rini hosted Linda Barucky, Kati Callahan Crawford, Regina Fana, Pat Gilmore Kearney and Mary Redmond O'Malley for a weekend at her condo on the beach in Naples. Fun, games, laughs and wine as they remembered Paulette & great old times. Mary Jo is moving to Treetops in SC—an hour south of Charlotte. Good Luck in the beautiful new home she's building! Carole Dugan Benz gratefully retired as CEO of ETC Compliance Solutions in Tucson on June 1, 2017. Her new email is carbuzz45@gmail.com if you'd like to get in touch. Carol Greuloch Graham reports a travel year! Columbus for her daughter's 50th, Cincinnati for granddaughter's graduation, 10 days in Greece—Athens, Mykonos and Santorini, then niece's destination wedding in New Orleans in Nov. They did the traditional "2nd line" afterward with band and stilt walker—all waving silk handkerchiefs! Finale in Arizona for Thanksgiving with their daughter. Kathy Gyarmath Eckhart and husband Steven welcomed their first grandchild, Emma, in Sept. 2018! After 34 years in DC this prompted their retirement to N. Carolina to be near their daughter's family. Sharon Gates Moynihan lives in Washington State. She and husband Pat have raised 3 biological and 6 foster children. Two are still growing up at home—a bit different than their planned retirement but they love it. She supports women's independence but has loved being a stay at home mom. After our 55th reunion, she and Suzanne Hughes reconnected via the web—rekindling an old friendship. Gerry Hall Urbanic has downsized after sadly after losing her husband, Jack, Christmas 2017. She would love to reconnect: 3100 Tradition Circle #3138, Mt Pleasant, SC, gerryurbanic@gmail.com, (843) 860-8706. Kati Callahan Crawford: For the first time in 13 years we spent the holidays in Ohio. We hosted the "mom no work" Thanksgiving. My daughter and daughter in law cooked and grandkids did cleanup! My granddaughter did ask while doing the dishes (for 24) if we could have paper plates next year! (NO) My daughter & husband did Xmas eve dinner and a huge open house for all the extended family Christmas day. Our adult children opted not to exchange gifts with their families but pool the money and support a family in need...warmed my heart to see such charity and true Christmas spirit. Health and blessings to all in 2019.

Happy New Year! The holiday season found many of us on the move. Brenda Woodworth O'Toole and her son visited her dad in Pebble Beach, CA. Judi Szabo toured Southeast Asia. Mary Beth Walton Guzzo returned to Shaker Heights to spend Christmas with her mom and family. She also connected with Tess Dreka Rosch. Tess and her husband spent time over New Year's in Sturbridge, MA. Peggy Wood VanDyke vacationed in Cabo San Lucas. Kathy Simoson O'Brien is spending part of the winter in Naples, FL. Nice! Karen Ferrato Small, owner and chef of The Flying Fig, was a James Beard semi-finalist for 2018. In a true farm-to-table approach, her restaurant has been named one of Cleveland's best. Well done Karen! Karen Bartko Reming has had another successful year of Baskets by Karen. Karen also organized a pre-Christmas get-together at Geraci's Restaurant of Pepper Pike on December 18th. Along with Karen were Brenda Woodworth O'Toole, Mary Sciotto Novotny, Tess Dreka Rosch, Mary Roncagli Johnson, Pat Connelly Dubiel, Kathy Simoson O'Brien, Mary Beth Jamieson DiCorpo, Maryann Anderson Falco, Ellen O'Haire Celmer, Juliana Scurec Barnick, Sue Robinson Andrassy and Kim Binder Carroll. Thank you to Geraci's for the special dessert and to Juliana for the candy treats. It was a wonderful evening walking down memory lane and sharing stories filled with laughs! The next gathering is scheduled for June 15th. Please contact Karen, Kathy or myself for details. We'd love to see you! Pat Connelly Dubiel and her husband hosted a sleep-over for all eleven grandchildren. I wonder if anyone got any sleep? The grand-baby stork delivered our first granddaughter in July. Beaumont could be in Maddy's future, you never know! Please continue to keep our classmates and their families in your prayers.

Susan Gorris retired from 43 years of teaching Visual Art at the elementary, secondary and University levels, and is now working full-time in her studio making oil paintings, ceramic sculptures and figure studies. She just completed a year-long organization of the Aldergrove Mural Project: a public collection of eleven large outdoor painted murals that depict individual artists' descriptions of her beautiful community. Her image depicted a selection of wild and domestic animals that she is involved with as a farm and pet owner and volunteer for a wildlife rehabilitation center. Suzanne DeGaetano, co-founder of Mac's Backs Books in Cleveland Heights, Ohio, was the recipient of the Martha Joseph Prize as part of the 2018 Cleveland Arts Prize winners. The Martha Joseph Prize is awarded to an individual or an organization that have made a significant contribution to the vitality and stature of the arts in northeast Ohio through exceptional commitment, vision, leadership, and/or philanthropy. As noted in the Heights Observer article by Robert Brown, the Arts Prize trustees explained why they chose Suzanne for the award: "Within the Cleveland arts community, she has established herself as a patron saint among emerging and seasoned poets, writers and artists. She knows most by name. Her generosity and commitment to Northeast Ohio's literary community knows no bounds."

Johanna Keenan Henz I'm back! As most of you know, I had a Bone Marrow Transplant last December in an effort to cure my Myelodysplastic Syndrome (a bone marrow failure cancer). The transplant was successful, and I am thrilled to report that I'm in remission! But then an unknown virus caused pneumonia in May, and after almost two months in ICU, I was given an emergency double lung transplant. I am recovering very well, and provide this update mostly to say that I wouldn't have had this success without all the love and prayers from the Beaumont community—my classmates and beyond. Thank you, thank you, thank you—I am grateful to all of you. (Also, if you are not an organ donor, please consider signing up to be one!). Beth Fairman Kinney serves as the South Side Neighborhood Pride Center Manager for the City of Columbus Department of Neighborhoods. She writes, "In my role I am an ambassador/advocate between the City and its residents. Every day presents a different challenge. My office is within the Reeb Avenue Center, which is also home to 14 other non-profits, which serves as a 'hub of hope' on the South Side. The area I serve is between Nationwide Children's Hospital and the Racino (City limits). One of the ZIP codes I serve is 43207, which has high rates of opiate overdoses, high rates of infant mortality, and high rates of poverty. (Just to put it in a public health perspective. And yes, I work very closely with Columbus Public Health!) In December, I will receive my Master of Public Administration from Ohio University George Voinovich School. I have been working on this for two years. This degree relates to the work that I am currently doing with the City!" Beth lives in Columbus (Clintonville), with her two boys (ages 8 and 10), husband, two dogs and a cat. Pomfila Watson has a lot going on! First, she recently married Joey Young! All the best to you both from all of us, Pom! She made the transition from the sky to the road when she switched from flight attendant work to driving the big rigs! She and Joey just got a new truck, and they drive together! One sleeps while the other drives. How cool is that? She lives in Cleveland but ends up all over the place through work. The Class of 1992 and the whole Beaumont community lost a true gem with the recent passing of Danielle Tripodo. We miss her, and are sending prayers to her family and friends. Some of the donations to Beaumont from our class have been dedicated to her memory. Please consider her when making your contribution this year. Miriam Metlock is moving from Panama City to Tallahassee, Florida. With this move comes a change in work—she will switch from being a nurse on a progressive care unit to working in a Cardiac Intensive Care Unit. This move is prompted in large part to her being a victim of the Category 4 Hurricane Michael earlier this year. Ever the optimist, she kept us all posted about how they were doing and stayed positive even in such a hard time. One special thing she noted was receiving a care package from the girls in our class to help them get back on their feet. This class is really something special. Erin Marks Labovitz writes from Indiana: "I have news! I ran for Center Township Board in Valparaiso, Indiana!" Though Erin didn't prevail, we know this is just the beginning of what we see of her on the campaign trail. We are proud of you, Erin! Aimee Caschera lives in Cleveland and is getting married to Gilbert Blomgren in December! As anyone who sees their pictures on Facebook will tell you, they are a beautiful, smiling couple and we wish them a lifetime of happiness! Heidi Hughes writes: "After 3.5 years in the SF Bay Area, we moved to Jackson Hole, WY this summer and will move again to São Paulo, Brazil in January (for my husband's job, which has taken us to 5 countries so far!). In CA, I was the Executive Director of the Francophone Charter School of Oakland but have happily downshifted to enjoying the mountains and learning Portuguese. Kids Éamonn (10) and Maeve (8) are getting in as much skiing as possible before the Brazil move and come home every day with a tally of bison, moose and elk they saw from the school bus. Hi to all 92s! Let me know if you're ever in any of my parts of the world!" Please keep sending updates! You can send them to me through Facebook or by email at johannahenz@gmail.com.

Jen Kramer writes: In addition to promoting our city through my work at Destination Cleveland, in 2018 I had the privilege of joining two new boards: the first is the Historic Gateway Neighborhood Corporation which advocates for businesses and residents, and inspires strategic growth in the Gateway District in Downtown Cleveland; the second is Community Assessment & Treatment Services (CATS) which aims to help rebuild the lives of those suffering from opioid addiction. This new year (2019) marks the third year serving on the Planning & Design Commission for Fairview Park, the community in which I purchased my first home almost two years ago. This past year, I welcomed a new four-legged family member to the house. Bubba Watson Kramer is a nearly two year old black lab who joined the family in February and is nothing but love.

Dana McKinley Dibling welcomed her second son on January 2, 2019, Connor Patrick. He joins big brother Matthew (3).

Elizabeth Santo Bull welcomed her third baby, Abigail Emily Bull, on 9/24/18! She and her husband have two girls already, Grace (6) and Claire (3). Kayla Murphy Cousineau and husband Mark welcomed their 3rd child in June- a baby girl named Margaret Eileen. Molly (Rallo) and Zac Zaluski welcomed their first child, Alice James, into their family on August 3rd, 2018. They are currently living in Worthington, Ohio and Molly is working in Marketing & Advertising for Columbus Crew SC. Evelyn Cash-Santos graduated from Beaumont in 2001 and went on to earn her Bachelors of Science degree in Aeronautical and Astronautical Engineering from The Ohio State University in 2006. Evelyn joined Boeing in Wichita, Kansas in 2006. She spent the early years of her career in the Aerodynamics group supporting FAA certification analysis and flight test activities for the 767 Tanker, 747-8 and 787-8 airplanes. In 2010, she and her husband Luis relocated to Seattle, Washington where she went on to be promoted to management in 2015. Evelyn led the team that successfully achieved commercial certification of the USAF KC-46 tanker airplane, a military derivative of the 767 designed for aerial refueling. She now leads the team responsible for ensuring that every 747, 767 and 777 airplane delivered from the Boeing factory in Everett, Washington meets the safety and airworthiness requirements of the FAA. Evelyn is an active mother of two amazing children: Elisa (age 4) and Jason (age 1 and a half). Last year, she climbed the Space Needle (832 steps!) in addition to completing her first Spartan Sprint Obstacle Course Race while also leading Fit4Mom classes for new moms in the North Seattle area. Evelyn is passionate about staying active even with small children and inspiring moms to get out and stay active with their families. Evelyn also recently launched a new podcast: Objectively Typed discussing the Objective Personality System, a self-growth and personality typology system based on the cognitive functions of Carl Jung. Evelyn is also an avid tabletop gamer, always on the lookout for the next amazing board game to try and explore.
