FINAL CONFERENCE: Please discuss the entire two-week experience with the student. Was the student able to fill her objectives? Was this a worthwhile project for her, and for you? Consider, especially, any changes from the first week. Are there any recommendations you can make for future Project REAL students you might have with you?

Comments:

Following your conference, please sign below (sponsor and student) and give the evaluation to the student to be turned in with her final reflection paper. Thank you so much for helping with this learning experience for our students.
